ted States Military Quadrille." CANTERBURY.—This is the second week of charming Cherry Belle, who will appear this evening, for the first time here, in her favorite character of Julietia in the beautiful melodrama entitled the "Dumb Girl of Genoa." supported by the entire drimatic company This is also the second week of the great comedy duc, Miss Jennie Johnson and Charley Kane, who will appear in the side-splitting burlesque the "Virginia Mummy."

GROVER'S THEATER .- Last week of the en. sagement of Mr. Dan Setchell, who will appear to night in the rich burlesque of "Leah the Forsock," in which Mr. Setchell takes the character of Leah, a shrewish maiden. The performance will commence with the laugha-ble farce entitled the "Mummy." Mr Setchell appearing therein as Toby Framp. Dan will put on his funniest to-night, so drop in and enjoy yourself.

ODD FELLOWS' HALL -Those who are fond of wit and humor, laughable burlesques, excellent singing and artistic dancing will not fail to visit Sanderson's Minstrels this evening. The hall is crowded nightly, and we advise you to engage your seats in time.

THE NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE THIRD WARD .- The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the proposed Church of the Immaculate Conception, on M street, near 8th, took place yesterday afternoon, a large congregation being assembled to witness the proceedings, among which were the children of St. Joseph's Male and St. Vincent's Female Orphan Asylums, accompanied by the Sisters of Charity, under whose charge they are.

The ceremony of blessing and laying the stone was performed by Father Walter, of St. Patrick's Church, assisted by Rev. Fathers Wiget, of St. Aloysius, and McCarthy, of St. Patrick's. In the stone were placed the Star and other papers, and specimens of the coin of the country, together with a copper tablet, inscribed:-"This corner stone, laid on the 30th day of October, 1864, of the 'Church of the Immacuiate Conception,' under the auspices of the Most Reverend Martin J. Spaulding, Archbishop of Baltimore."

The clergy then proceeded around the foun dation walls, blessing them; after which, a most excellent discourse was delivered by Rev. Father Boyle, of St. Peter's Church, which closed the services. As we have before stated, the building to be erected is to be 75 by 25 feet, and of two stories, and will, after the main church is erected. which it is proposed to erect in a few years, he used for school purposes. There are many Catholics in this section of the city, and a church is much needed here. For the present the church will be under the charge of Rev. Father Walter, but ultimately it will be erected into a separate parish. A liberal collection was raised to aid in the erection of the building.

THE DRAFT .- The Board of Enrollment disposed of the following cases on Saturday : First Sub-District .- Albert McPherson, furnished substitute. Second Sub-District .- Alfred Upsher, physical disability; J. W. Pilling, furnished substi-

BURGLARY AND LARCENY CASES .- Yester. day morning, officer R. Johnson arrested Aaron Clark, Edward Ross, Turner Nugent, and Samuel Woodyard, colored, for breaking into a house kept as a restaurant by Henry Thomas and Wm. Queen, colored, on K street, 7th north. They were taken before Justice Thompson, when it appeared that the party planned the robbery, which was executed Saturday night, while the proprietors were at Market. Nugent entered the house, while the others watched to secure his escape from arrest. Officer Johnson managed to secure all the parties in an hour after the warrants were issued. Nugent confessed his guilt, and the others convicted themselves. Justice Thompson committed all to jail for court.

In the afternoon, Sandy Russell and Edward Douglass, colored, were arrested by officer Brewer, for breaking into stalls in Center Market, and robbing them of fruits and vegetables. Justice Thompson heard the evidence in the case, and sent both to jail for court. Both these fellows are of the bootblack brigade that loiters about the market.

St. ALOYSIUS .- Very impressive services are being had at this church this week, the forty hours' devotion being observed. Yesterday commenced the devotion of the "Quarant Ore," or Forty Hours' Prayer, during which time the most holy sacrament was exposed and continual prayers were recited. The services commenced at 11 a. m. yesterday, with a solemn high mass, and will end on Tuesday, at the same hour. The singing was excellent. Madam Kretschmar sang, besides the mass, the "Infla-matus," from Rossini's "Stabat Mater," and "Gratias," in her usual sweet voice, holding spell-bound all who were present. We noticed Mr. Geo. French back at his post, his tenor being as rich as ever.

Tuesday is the Feast of All Saints: at 7 p. m. solemn vespers for the dead, during which time Rossini's "Stabat Mater" will be sung by the full choir. On Wednesday, at 9 a. m., the solemn commemoration of All Souls.

ATTEMPT AT ARSON .- Sunday morning, at o'clock, Patrolman Holiohan, of the Third Ward, discovered fire in the house on Seventh street, between L and M, occupied by Mr. Baner. The fire was between the weatherboards and plaster, and had burned through. With the aid of officers Sullivan and Maxwell he extinguished the fire without giving alarm. The loss consisted principally in tearing away a considerable portion of the weather-boards to get at the fire, but the cost of repair will be small. It was evidently an incendiary attempt, but there is no reason to suspect any SHUTTING UP THE SHOP .- Saturday night, Sergeant Tait, of the Second Ward, by order of Superintent Weeb, proceeded to the house No. 501 13th street, near C west, and took possession of the premises, with all the contents, including the women. The women, except the Madam, Maggie Brown, were fined $5. The Madam being very sick was left in the house, being too sick to be removed. The house and furniture remain in charge of the police until further

MCKENDREE CHAPEL.-This congregation was addressed last evening by Rev. Mr. Johnson, President of Dickinson College. He gave a history of the church from its foundation. and also a history of the labors of Wesley He then discoursed on the subject of colleges, and, among other things, stated that Dickinson College had to depend chiefly upon its own endeavors for success, it not having, like most other institutions, been favored with large do-

FUNERAL.—Yesterday afternoon, Eastern Lodge, No. 7, I. O. O. F., C. C. Anderson, mar-shal, with the band from Finley Hospital, attended the funeral of Mr. James E. Beall, a member of that organization. After the services at the house of the deceased, on 4% street, Island, the cortege proceeded to Glenwood Cemetery, where the interment took place, the funeral rites of the order being conducted by Chaplain Mundell.

KIDWELL & HENDERSON, No. 367 D street, near Ninth, have added to their fine assortment of wall papers and window shades a fine selection of oval picture frames, with cords and tassels to suit. DR. RAND'S SPECIFIC.

The oldest and most reliable medicine for th cure of Spermatorhea, Seminal Weakness, Loss of Power, &c. This medicine has stood the test of over thirty years, and has always proved a success Dr. Rand's Specific is exhibited in the form of pills, made up sutirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of operations upon the bowels from taking any kind of pills. The Specific of Dr. Kand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medical virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired generative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons masticate them with impunity before swallowing them; which plan we would always recommend, as affording the speediest way to get the effect of the
